

AROUND the TOWNSHIP

Ray Benbow, native of Warm Springs and now resident of Irvington, went to see the movie "San Francisco" the other night and was swept back to his boyhood.

He was just a shaver when the earthquake and fire swept San Francisco. "The big shake didn't frighten me," he recalls. "I did not know what it was. It was the recurrent tremors all through one day that scared me. He remembers sitting on the front porch of the family home between Irvington and Warm Springs and seeing the flames shoot high in the city nearly 30 miles away. 'I'll never forget it,' he comments.

Young Ernest Frei, born in America but resident of Europe for most of his life, has entered Washington Union high school as an upper classman. Young Frei, whose father is a well-known resident of Mission San Jose, has had two years of training in French and German schools. Because he speaks little English, A. J. Rathbone has devised the plan of having him take a course in elementary French. "The boy doesn't need the French," Rathbone reasons, "because he already speaks it. But it should help him pick up English from his fellow students who will be learning French.

Decoto is certainly developing a night life of its own. The other night the new telephone exchange was opened and some light soon, Frank Thomas expects about nine night blooming cereuses—or is it cereas—to open soon. Thomas says the public is invited.

Mrs. Joe Greer, recent arrival in Washington township from the state of Tennessee, has already found a niche in this community. Local people who tell dark jokes have called on her as an authority on how southern colored people pronounce their words. Mrs. Greer makes no charge for this instruction.

John J. Valim of Warm Springs, as well as a good many of the rest of us, are of the opinion that if the railroad is determined to leave those big spikes sticking up in the crossing just south of the Alameda creek bridge at Niles, they might as well send a man out to shape them up. Motorists in this district have to go through all sorts of maneuvers to avoid striking them.

As honorary hose tender of the Wedgewood fire department, we believe the boys of that organization are about the liveliest bunch around these parts. Proof of their enthusiasm is the tree-mendous dance they are planning at Newark. We plan on going because we believe they'll need someone to tend the bat-tenders.

Niles Road Project 12 Percent Finished

NILES—Sixty workmen on the highway underpass project here "saw daylight" this week. The daylight they saw was under the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific tracks at the Vallejo street and Kimber farm crossings. Digger shovels broke through the last remaining dirt that impeded completion of the two great underpasses.

This week, engineers in charge of construction declared that the project is about 12 per cent complete. Two diggers are working two shifts and one digger is working a single shift.

By the first of next week, nearly 70 men will be employed. By the first of next month, that number will be nearly doubled.

Many passers-by have seen the shovel at work up on the hillside near the Belvoir hotel. Engineers say that work will be abandoned temporarily soon. Their plan in starting it at this time is the result of delays in other parts of the project.

The work as a whole is up to schedule, however.

RICHMOND RETAINS SUPERVISORSHIP

New Firm Making Ice Accessories In Plant At Irvington

IRVINGTON—A portable, dry ice refrigerator for use on picnics and camping trips; large refrigerators for domestic use, steam beer dispensers, speedier and more economical to operate than the ordinary tap; mixers which carbonate liquids while they mix; water carbonating equipment and ice cream cabinets—

All these are the products of the Koldaire Utilities Co., Inc., which has taken over the Reid Bros. factory at Irvington.

At a gathering of Koldaire company officials, salesmen and friends of the organization here Friday, all the products of the new firm were demonstrated.

According to Clayton Van Ike, founder of the company and present general manager, the local factory will be devoted exclusively to the manufacture of equipment used in the handling of dry ice.

Irvington will get the headquarters of the firm, which is moving here from Los Angeles.

Koldaire Utilities was first started as an Engineering and Development Company to develop appliances for the use of a product manufactured from Carbon Dioxide, and commonly known as Dry Ice, say company officials.

The first development work was carried on by Mr. Van Ike, an engineer who had faith in the growth and future possibilities of Dry Ice as a coming industry. After spending three years in research work at his own expense, he formed a closed trust which carried on the development work for another three years. During this period, means and appliances were successfully developed for controlling the extreme temperature of Dry Ice and several patents were filed, some of which have been issued while others have had claims allowed and are on file in Washington.

IRVINGTON RAIL CROSSING WORK NOW UNDER WAY

IRVINGTON—A crew of 14 workmen is busy this week repairing the Western Pacific railroad crossing on the Irvington-Mission road. The county and the Southern Pacific have yet to start on their part of the work.

Action on the bad crossings is the result of requests by the Irvington Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ray Pond acted as judge of the skaters and everyone had a fine time.

NEWARK—The Wedgewood fire Department has sent out invitations to its employees and their friends to a free dance to be given at the Swiss Park hall in Newark on next Saturday evening, August 29, 1936. Admission will be card only. It is estimated that 1,000 invitations have already been issued and the different committees working for the success of this affair are confident that it will be the biggest dance ever held in Washington Township.

Some fifteen or sixteen beautiful prizes are to be given away and a wonderful eight piece orchestra will play for the dance. There will also be entertainment numbers. A The committees on whose shoulders the responsibility rests are: L. R. Burdick, General Chair-

Employees may have as many cards as they wish by applying to any member of the Fire Department.

Niles Man Receives Heavy Margin From District's Voters

Ralph V. Richford received his 51 per cent of the total vote cast in Murray, Pleasanton and Washington townships at Tuesday's primaries. This means that he is re-elected supervisor for the first district.

Because neither John J. Amaral nor Ernest Schween of Pleasanton received sufficient votes to find a place on the ballot, Richmond will not have to continue his campaign.

FURTADO DRAWS BIG LOCAL VOTE

NILES—Upset appeared in the assembly district race on the Democratic ticket, in Washington township's vote Tuesday.

May Furtado beat James J. Cassidy by more than 100 votes. Except as an indication of sentiment, the vote means little, because Cassidy's Republican support is expected to elect him in the finals.

Unofficial totals for the township showed:

Cassidy 543

Furtado 616

Hill 186

In the Democratic assembly race in Murray and Pleasanton townships, Cassidy was far ahead.

Congressman Albert Carter, running unopposed on the Republican ticket, held his own in this district against the campaign of J. Stitt Wilson, his chief opponent.

Figures are:

Solving Midseason Dress Problem

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

WHEN summer clothes begin to take on a jaded and somewhat worse-for-wear "has been" air, and you are loath to force the season by donning advance fall fashions before the psychological moment arrives, then what? Aye, that's the problem that has destroyed perfectly good dispositions and peace of mind of the fair sex throughout decades and decades of time.

However, we are not going to be tantalized and tormented with such momentous worries this midseason, for good news concerning this question is winging its way fashionward at this very moment. Tidings of great cheer, they are told in terms of dresses and suits tailored of the black or dark-toned silk sheers, nets and laces which have come into favor of late as they never came before. These cool and comfortable dark sheers are a perfect blend from summer to fall. In such you are sure to hold poise and serenity in the assurance that you will be smartly and appropriately costumed all through the prologue which nature and the weather man play to autumn. In fact, no wardrobe may be said to be complete these days without at least one tailored black or dark sheer in its collection.

Acquire a two-piece gown of black silk marquisette as shown to the left in the illustration and your between-season dress trials will vanish like dew on a sunny morn. In regard to selecting a sheer for dependable wear, perhaps a few words of advice will not come amiss. When you buy, insist on a weave of guaranteed quality. In order to get maximum service and real joy and satisfaction in the costume you rely upon to carry you through the between-season valiantly, the sheer of which it is made should be nothing less than pure silk and fast dye. Perish the thought of a shoddy black that is apt to take on a greenish bilious cast as cheaper blacks in cheaper weaves are wont to do. Buy pure silk and your dress will wear dependably. As to the smart styling of the model pictured, note that it is a tunic costume. Newly arriving fashions verify previous reports that the tunic will continue to be the big idea for fall. The large black buttons that fasten this tunic, also the modish short sleeve and the white jabot, register important fashion details.

Advance fashions tell of the emphasis placed on the princess silhouette for both dresses and coats as the print costume with full-length princess coat of the print in this group demonstrates. The print is black and wine on a cream ground. There is increasing interest shown for wine and red shades and they are regarded as color "firsts" for fall and winter. An innovation is the use of velvet revers on coats and jackets after the manner noted in this costume. This coat-dress qualifies admirably as an ideal midsummer costume. Its sheer print guarantees comfort while its modish velvet revers tune to the march of time that leads to fall days.

In the redingote made of fine black lace as portrayed to the right, answer to the midseason dress problem is given in no uncertain terms. A lace redingote such as this may be worn over different dresses converting the simplest frock into a costume of style distinction. For formal wear pose it over a black satin slip. What could make a more charming hostess or dinner gown than the redingote of black lace topped with a white cotton pique foundation as here illustrated. The soft pique collar and perky bow lend fetching accents to this costume. You'll love a black lace redingote or jacket over your summer pastel silk crepe frocks. Try out the idea. You will find it well worth while. Separate lace jackets are smart, too, in either black or white.

TYROLEAN JACKET

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Here is a little indispensable jacket you will want to wear with your culottes or shorts. It is made of white linen bound in bright colors like open, red, navy or black with silver buttons. It is colorful and has the decorative buttons because it is of Tyrolean inspiration. Much of the fashionable sportswear this season reflects influence of Austrian peasant dress. The outstanding fashion note of this attractive jacket is the hand-quilted Trapunto design at the neck and on the pockets and sleeves. The vogue for hand-quilting is growing into a most outstanding style movement.

Pique for Toque

White pique flowers make a summer toque.

GLACE KID IS NEW FALL GLOVE STYLE

The smartest gloves this fall will be "smooth." There is a definite revival, to quote Vogue, "of the firm, moulded hand," possibly following the moulded silhouette, the moulded bust and moulded hips, which will be featured for fall. As the high style leather of the coming season, Paris is consequently sponsoring thin, supple glaze kid. It has always been a standby and favorite, but now it is coming up rapidly in the fashion world.

Since three out of the four gloves Molyneux will show with his collection are glaze kid, it goes without saying that the smartest women in Paris and this country will adopt the fashion. Fashions, as a whole, are becoming more and more feminine and the glaze glove is but a natural result of that trend. Thin, smooth leather is the most flattering a woman can wear. It outlines the shape of her hand and makes her fingers appear long and slender.

Color is again a dominant note. Colored gloves are not going out of style. On the contrary, the fashion will be harnessed to practical, sensible shades of which some will become almost staples.

Prints and Big Hats

Colorful prints, broad-brimmed hats, and strap pumps with high built-up heels are favorites among outdoor diners at Manhattan's fashionable terrace cafes during the noon hour.

Choosing Corsages

A good principle to follow in selecting a corsage or shoulder bouquet is that the large flowers look best on the tall woman, small ones on a short woman.

Mrs. Clayton Van Ike Has Good Italian Squash Dish

IRVINGTON—Mrs. Clayton Van Ike is a newcomer to Irvington and the township. Mr. Van Ike is general manager of the Koldaire Utilities Co., Inc. which has taken over the Reid Bros. plant.

Mr. Van Ike gives every evidence of being full of enthusiasm and energy. Perhaps it is Mrs. Van Ike's cooking. At any rate, here is her recipe for diced Italian squash, which is one of Mr. Van Ike's enthusiasms.

Use one cup, olive oil in pan. Season with garlic to taste. Dice several small Italian squash very fine and fry in fat. Add chopped onion and several bell peppers. When squash appears half done, add half as much tomato, chopped. Salt and pepper to taste and then turn down flame, cover pan and let simmer for 20 minutes.

BAKED PEACHES
When peaches are plentiful have them baked. A few drops of lemon juice and a slight grating of nutmeg are delicious on baked peaches (fresh or canned). This makes a good dessert or an accompaniment to the meat course.

Small upside-down puddings: Instead of baking your upside-down cake in a skillet or cake pan use muffin pans, putting butter, brown sugar and fruit in the bottom of each pan. Unmold when baked and serve with plain or whipped cream.

Crunchy confections to be served at tea time: Melt 1/2 pound of sweet chocolate over hot water; pour over 4 or 5 cups corn flakes, so that each flake is covered with a thin film of chocolate. Mix, drop on waxed paper. Chill. 40 cookies.

And Still Salmon
Salmon Casserole: Put alternate layers flaked canned salmon and fine cracker crumbs in greased casserole. Pour over all a can of cream of mushroom soup, to which 1 tablespoon grated onion has been added. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 20 minutes.

STUFFED BAKED POTATOES
To 4 medium sized baked potatoes, mashed in the usual way for stuffing, add 1 can (2 1/2 oz.) deviled ham. Put back in shells, sprinkle with grated cheese and paprika. Brown lightly in oven.

VEGETABLE VARIATIONS
Italian Baked Tomatoes: Wash 6 tomatoes, remove pulp. Fry 1 minced onion in 1 tablespoon olive oil until brown. Add tomato pulp, 1 cup soft breadcrumbs, 1/4 teaspoon ground allspice. Season with salt and pepper. Fill tomato shells. Place in baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes.

Corn-clam cakes: Mix 1 cup fresh or canned corn, chopped with 1 cup fresh or canned clams, minced, 1/2 cup dry bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, salt and few grains pepper. Shape into small flat cakes. Fry in fat or oil until brown on both sides.

Chef's Specialty Biscuit
Flour, 4 cups
Salt, 2 teaspoons
Baking powder, 3 tablespoons
Shortening, 4 tablespoons
Chives, chopped, 4 tablespoons
Green pepper, chopped, 2 tablespoons
Sage, and Pimiento, chopped, 2 tablespoons

Milk 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cups.
1. Mix and sift dry ingredients; cut in shortening with knives or pastry blender.
2. Add chopped chives, or chopped pepper and pimiento.
3. Add milk gradually, mixing to a soft dough.

4. Toss on floured board and roll 1/2 inch thick.
5. Cut with biscuit cutter; place on greased shallow pan.
6. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 15 minutes. For variety make up half of this recipe using chives and half using green pepper and pimiento. Makes approximately 2 dozen small biscuits.

Shrimp Hors d'Oeuvres
1. Wash a well-rounded cabbage and drain well.
2. Roll back outer leaves to resemble open petals of a rose.
3. Stick whole shrimps (canned or fresh, boiled and shelled) with toothpicks and insert them in cabbage.
4. If cabbage is a large one make cavity in top center and fill with Russian dressing (mayonnaise to which drained chili sauce has been added).
5. Dressing may be served in separate dish if preferred.
6. Each person dips shrimp in sauce before eating.

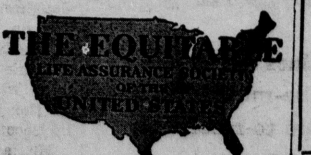

A very choice chicken sandwich is easily achieved by adding to minced chicken finely cut celery, ripe olives and mayonnaise. This filling is equally nice for buffet supper sandwiches or for picnic or school lunch-box sandwiches.

Freight trains nowadays act like express specials. New freight schedules are so fast, sometimes wonder if everything has to be delivered day before yesterday.

Many of our passenger trains are running faster schedules, too. Well, one thing is sure. We make faster runs, but the first railroad commandment is still "Safety First." That's one rule they won't change.

Western railroads and allied industries provided jobs for 750,000 workers last year. Some of them live in our town. Good neighbors.

Passenger fares are now the lowest in history with substantial reductions on round trips. And no more surcharge for riding in sleeping cars.

This Free pick-up-and-delivery of less than carload freight—I heard some traveling salesmen talking about it on the train yesterday. They said it saves shippers a lot of money and centers all responsibility on the railroad. The railroad picks up the freight at shipper's door and delivers it at receiver's door. Of course, the local delivery men get the haul from door-to-car and car-to-door at both ends. But the railroad handles the whole transaction.

When railroads are busy, I notice towns along the railroad are prosperous. The merchants put more ads in the newspapers.

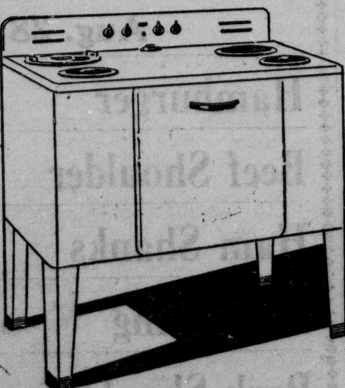

We are proud of railroad achievements, appreciate the public's good will and increased patronage, and pledge continued progress.

THE SUPERVISORIAL RACE

The race for supervisor seemed to us to be an unusually clean one. The candidates slung practically no mud. Now that it is over and Mr. Richmond is re-elected for another term, the least anybody can do is to give him full support.

Young Amaral and young Schween gained not feel too badly about their defeats. They gained in experience and they are young enough so that they can try again some time.

PORTUGAL AND ENGLAND

Portugal occupies a key position in the European imbroglio which may result in another world war.

Portugal, say students of world affairs, is the crux of Britian's dilemma in the matter of neutrality and the Spanish revolution.

England is pledged to Portugal's protection by a treaty which dates from 1661. Portugal is economically dependent on England. England, on the other hand depends on Portugal's aid for the protection of her African colonies and for protection, by the Azores, of the outside route to India.

Dr. Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, Portugal's strong man, and his supporters, are sympathetic to the revolutionary forces which are struggling to overthrow the red-tinged Spanish government. If Russia, or any other country attempts to stop Portugal from aiding the revolutionists, or if the Spanish government forces attempt to invade Portugal, England, under terms of her treaty is bound to intervene. Such a move probably would set off another general European war.

JESS REGLI

When Jess Regli, coach for seven years at Washington Union high school, leaves Washington township, he will carry with him the best wishes of a great many people.

The township, especially the boys who have learned their sports from him, will miss him. Probabilities are that Regli has left a mark here that will never quite vanish. Dozens of young fellows around here will grow up to be better citizens and to serve their community more efficiently as a result of their contact with him.

The Niles library building is one to be proud of. It is a much finer and more artistic building than is usually found in towns much larger than Niles. Mrs. Murray is all that can be desired in a librarian as she is always courteous, kind and helpful. But it is a matter of regret that more of the better magazines such as Harpers and Scribners are not available for circulation. Also, how pleasant it would be to find some of the late books of travel and biography there. After reading the book-review it is tantalizing to book-lovers not to find them. However it is true that some of the late books can be obtained. The librarian is glad to order them by special request for a short time.

The main thing which constitutes a library is books and more books. Now that the depression is lifting a little, perhaps the county authorities who have this fatter in charge will see their way clear to allotting more funds for the purpose.

MORE GILBERT AND SULLIVAN

D'Oyly Carte Company seemingly goes on forever. This English troupe, playing only Gilbert and Sullivan operas, started an eight week engagement last Thursday at New York's Martin Beck theatre. When they will be seen on the Coast we haven't heard.

The Gilbert and Sullivan operas never lose their tang—although near half a century old, their librettos written to topical themes of another day. By the way, has it ever occurred to you that England's two most popular composers were Irishmen? They were Arthur Sullivan and Richard Balfe. And America's greatest composer of light music was likewise an Irishman. Perhaps you have heard of him, too. He was Victor Herbert. What would radio be without him?

"CEASE AND DESIST" ORDER

THE GOLDEN WEDDING

One golden thread runs thro' the loom
Not always seen, and sometimes dull and sometimes bright
Like a flaming meteor across the pattern of the sky
That flashes forth and fades into the darkness of the night
But is not lost.

Always thro' the pattern of our lives it runs
To mark the golden moment of some day
Or thro' the many days, some victory.
Take then the crown of years not days alone
That thro' the changing circumstance of youth and age
There gleaming bright, we see the thread of gold
Now woven firm in pattern of the years
A golden heritage.

DECOTO CHAMBER TO NAME LEADER

DECOTO—Members of the Decoto Chamber of Commerce will elect new officers at their next meeting on September 3.

Nominees are J. P. Kelly for president, Manuel Cunha for vice president, Frank Thomas and L. W. Musick for secretary-treasurer; Raymond Soares, Tony Costa and Clarence Freitas for trustee positions.

The chamber has endorsed the request of the postmaster for the construction of a new postoffice building which would remove the office from its present location in Olson's store.

advertisements—and have cracked down on Acme Brewing Company of San Francisco. The company was given until September 11 to show cause why a "cease and desist" order should not be issued. We suspect an order to "cease" would be sufficient, but tautology is a privilege of the law.

Acme has used radio, newspapers and billboards to exploit its "non-fattening" brew, according to the complaint, and has represented that the beer contains certain ingredients which have the tendency to slenderize guzzlers.

After weighty consideration of the problem, the federal trade commission announced that "unless consideration is given to the individual dietary habits, physiological idiosyncrasies and fat-producing tendencies of beer consumers" no beer could be truthfully represented as "non-fattening" for all people and without properties for inducing increase in weight."

Anyhow it was a swell idea on the part of the advertising agency that thought it up.

City Life

Atmosphere is the principal commodity at Fishermen's wharf, famous San Francisco eating place. The place has glamor—many small boats moored to the wharf, fishermen going about their business; and, the thing which attracts tourists, restaurants and restaurant-fish markets galore.

After one visit, however, the whole setup takes on a faintly spurious quality.

The picturesque sidewalk caldrons where one is supposed to buy shellfish cooked before his eyes, actually cook little that has come from northern California seas.

So also with the restaurants which have a curb service. For inquiry reveals that the prawns sold come from Mexico. So do the lobsters. So do most of the other fish. Shrimps, save for one pallid variety, come from Puget sound, as do the small oysters. The big oysters come from the east.

It's all a delightful delusion.

The current pictures making the heaviest draw in the cities are "Anthony Adverse," "Mary of Scotland," "To Mary—With Love" and "San Francisco." The last named is standing them in the second run houses. The two "Mary" pictures make an especial appeal to the femmes—the one with its royal pageantry, the second with its thick sentiment. At the Carthay Circle theatre in Los Angeles "The Great Ziegfeld" has just closed a four months run to make way for "Anthony." The seats were filled nights for "Ziegfeld" and "Anthony" is going great guns matinees where women customers predominate.

In San Francisco "Ziegfeld" after a five weeks engagement at the Geary as a road show, turned them away at the Paramount at pop prices. They took a lot of pains to make "Mary of Scotland" and ignored history to provide a plausible story. Too bad history has to be fictionalized to be made palatable. But Henry Ford said history is "bunk" and Henry can think as well as the next one. "Suzy" with Jean Harlow, is another box office hit, largely the result of shrewd advertising. It pays to advertise. On the stage, Tallulah Bankhead did $10,000 a week in San Francisco, while Eddie Cantor packed them in to the tune of $35,000 a week. (Tab that one.) In Los Angeles Tallulah's premier cost five smackers the seat, and was a sellout. Since then she has been packing them in. New pictures about to be released are "China Clipper" and "Last of the Mohicans." Both are warmly praised by their press agents.

A movement is being considered by exhibitors to put an end to the double feature program. So loud are the complaints of those who object to sitting through an hour and a half of boring "entertainment" to see a picture in which they are interested, something may be done about it. Exhibitors excuse the double picture bills by saying they have to appeal to the crowd who want a lot for their money, regardless of quality. The thinking customers are not numerous and the theatres will hesitate a long time before making the change. Some of the newer pictures—"Anthony" and "Ziegfeld" for examples—run so long a double bill is impossible.

Squawks about "National honor" have resulted in excluding many American films by foreign countries. Strangely, these beats are mainly based on episodes that seem inoffensive to Americans. "The March of Time" has been most consistent loser because by nature its productions are "cunt". The English have been loudest in their moans about "Time" but generally they will compromise by deleting sections of the film that appears offensive to the censors and let the rest run.

Premiums For Peach Growers
Some cling peach growers in the Yuba City district are reported to be receiving a premium above the $30 per ton received under agreement with the canners and some growers are receiving as high as $30 per ton for their No. 2 grade of fruit, according to L. F. Bridges, chief inspector of that district.

Bovine TB Deadline Delayed
Health authorities of California counties have decided to postpone until next January 1st the enforcement of regulations which require that on those dairy products originating in tuberculin-tested herds be accepted for sale on the California market. Delays in forwarding the testing program have been encountered due to organized opposition in some districts.

Fourteen of the leading 50 peach counties of the United States are found in California, ranked according to the census figure on the number of trees of bearing age. Those fourteen counties are Sutter, Fresno, Stanislaus, ranking first, second and third, respectively, in the United States; Merced, Placer, Tulare, San Joaquin, San Bernardino, Butte, Sacramento, Kings, Yuba, Riverside and Solano.
